Agents may impose up to eight hours of community 32.30 work service for each violation and up to a total of 24 hours per offender per 12-month 32.31 period, beginning with the date on which community work service is first imposed. The 32.32 commissioner may authorize an additional 40 hours of community work services, for a total 32.33 of 64 hours per offender per 12-month period, beginning with the date on which community 32.34

33.19 determines that community options are appropriate, the agent shall seek to restructure the 33.20 offender's terms of release to incorporate those options. If an offender on probation stipulates

33.21 in writing to restructure the terms of release, a probation agent must forward a report to the 33.22 district court containing:

33.24 (2) the recommended restructure to the terms of probation; and

33.25 (3) a copy of the offender's signed stipulation indicating that the offender consents to

33.26 the restructuring of probation.

33.27 The recommended restructuring of probation becomes effective when confirmed by a judge. The order of the court shall be proof of such confirmation and amend the terms of the sentence imposed by the court under section 609.135. If a nonviolent controlled substance

33.30 offender's parole or probation is revoked, the offender's agent must first attempt to place

33.31 the offender in a local jail. For purposes of this paragraph, "nonviolent controlled substance

33.32 offender" is a person who meets the criteria described under section 244.0513, subdivision

33.33 2, clauses (1), (2), and (5), and "technical violation" means any violation of a court order

- 34.1 of probation or a condition of parole, except an allegation of a subsequent criminal act that

34.26 the conditions imposed on the inmate; or

- 34.27 (2) revoke the inmate's supervised release and reimprison the inmate for the appropriate34.28 period of time.
- 34.29 Prior to revoking a nonviolent controlled substance offender's supervised release based
- 34.30 on a technical violation, when the offender does not present a risk to the public and the
- 34.31 offender is amenable to continued supervision in the community, the commissioner must
- 34.32 identify community options to address and correct the violation including, but not limited
- 34.33 to, inpatient chemical dependency treatment. If the commissioner determines that community options are appropriate, the commissioner shall restructure the inmate's terms of release to 35.1 incorporate those options. If a nonviolent controlled substance offender's supervised release 35.2 35.3 is revoked, the offender's agent must first attempt to place the offender in a local jail. For purposes of this subdivision, "nonviolent controlled substance offender" is a person who 35.4 meets the criteria described under section 244.0513, subdivision 2, clauses (1), (2), and (5), 35.5 and "technical violation" means a violation of a condition of supervised release, except an 35.6 allegation of a subsequent criminal act that is alleged in a formal complaint, citation, or 35.7 35.8 petition.

The period of time for which a supervised release may be revoked may not exceed the period of time remaining in the inmate's sentence, except that if a sex offender is sentenced and conditionally released under Minnesota Statutes 2004, section 609.108, subdivision 5, the period of time for which conditional release may be revoked may not exceed the balance of the conditional release term.

35.20 not limited to, inpatient chemical dependency treatment. If the agency determines that

35.21 community options are appropriate, the county probation officer shall recommend a sanction

A restraining order may be issued only against the respondent named in the petition; except that if the respondent is an organization, the order may be issued against and apply to all of the members of the organization. If the court finds that the petitioner has had two or more

If 44.16 the court finds that the respondent named in the restraining order has met the burden of 44.17 proof, the court may vacate or modify the order. If the court finds that the respondent named 44.18 in the restraining order has not met the burden of proof, the court shall deny the request and 44.19 no request may be made to vacate or modify the restraining order until five years have 44.20 elapsed from the date of denial.
