2	gove	ernments.
3	Be it	it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:
4		→ SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 65 IS CREATED TO
5	REA	AD AS FOLLOWS:
6	(1)	This section is intended by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of
7		Kentucky to grant to consolidated local governments the power to regulate
8		firearms by ordinance in order to reduce gun violence.
9	(2)	Consolidated local governments may regulate the manufacture, sale, purchase,
10		taxation, transfer, ownership, possession, carrying, storage, and transportation of
11		firearms, firearms components, ammunition, and ammunition components, to an
12		extent not in conflict with the Constitution or laws of this Commonwealth or of
13		the United States.
14	(3)	The power granted by this section shall be in addition to all other powers granted
15		to consolidated local governments by other provisions of law.
16	(4)	An ordinance regulating firearms or ammunition that is issued by the council of
17		a consolidated local government shall apply within the jurisdictional boundaries
18		of all cities within that consolidated local government, and no city within the
19		consolidated local government's boundaries shall preempt the controls.
20		→ Section 2. KRS 65.870 is amended to read as follows:
21	(1)	Except for consolidated local governments, no existing or future city, county,
22		urban-county government, charter county, [consolidated local government,] unified
23		local government, special district, local or regional public or quasi-public agency,
24		board, commission, department, public corporation, or any person acting under the
25		authority of any of these organizations may occupy any part of the field of regulation of the manufacture, sale, purchase, taxation, transfer, ownership, possession, carrying, storage, or transportation of firearms, ammunition,
