HB 316 Original	2016 Regular Session	Ivev
		1.09

Abstract: Prohibits the possession of firearms by persons convicted of crimes of violence unless the offender obtains a certain type of pardon.

Present law provides that it is unlawful for persons convicted of crimes of violence, sex offenses, felony drug offenses and certain enumerated felonies to possess a firearm or carry a concealed weapon.

Present law provides for a 10-year cleansing period without subsequent conviction to restore the right to possess a firearm.

Proposed law excludes crimes of violence from the 10-year cleansing period and provides that persons convicted of a crime of violence shall not possess a firearm or carry a concealed weapon unless a governor's pardon expressly allows them to do so.
