34	SUMMARY
35 36	This bill makes changes to the laws recommended by the Criminal Law Advisory Commission.

Part A does the following:

- 1. Amends the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 15, section 393, subsection 1-B by replacing the words "pending charging instrument" with the words "the charge that gave rise to the prohibition" to eliminate a potential ambiguity; and
- 2. Enacts as Title 15, section 1094-C a provision that makes it a Class C crime for a person arrested for an alleged murder and who is detained because a Harnish bail proceeding has not yet taken place, the proceeding has been waived in open court by the person, or the proceeding has taken place and the person's conditional right to bail has been extinguished and bail has been denied by the court and who has been properly notified not to make direct or indirect contact with any specifically identified family or household member of the alleged victim of the murder for which the person is being detained to intentionally or knowingly make direct or indirect contact with any specifically identified family or household member of the alleged victim.

Part B clarifies provisions of the Criminal History Record Information Act as they apply to granted petitions for full and free pardons.

Part C does the following:

- 1. Rearranges into 2 subsections the content of Title 17-A, section 33. Subsection 1 contains the content of the current section 33, except that it deletes the words "unless the concurrent cause was clearly sufficient to produce the result and the conduct of the defendant was clearly insufficient." Subsection 2 contains a simplified test to be applied in the event concurrent causation is generated as an issue. It provides that, when a defendant's conduct may have operated concurrently with another cause, in addition to satisfying the "but for" test the defendant's conduct must have been sufficient by itself to produce the result; and
- 2. Amends Title 17-A, section 505, subsection 2 by adding to the definition of "public way" the words "a way upon which the public has access as invitees or licensees."

Part D allows the use of prior convictions for aggravated assault, elevated aggravated assault and elevated aggravated assault on a pregnant person, and like crimes in other jurisdictions, to be used to elevate the class of subsequent domestic violence crimes from Class D to Class C. The prior conviction may be used to enhance the current charge only if the State or other jurisdiction proved, in the prior case, that the defendant and victim were family or household members.

Part E does the following:

- 1. Amends Title 17-A, section 1101 by enacting definitions of "cocaine" and "heroin." The definition of "cocaine" mirrors that currently found in Title 17-A, section 1102, subsection 1, paragraph F. The definition of "heroin" as "any compound, mixture or preparation containing heroin (diacetylmorphine) in any quantity" is in response to State v. Pinkham, Sr., 2016 ME 59, 137 A. 3d 203; and
- 2. Repeals the definition of "cocaine" in Title 17-A, section 1102, subsection 1, paragraph F, because its content is moved to section 1101.

Part F of the bill does the following:

- 1. Amends Title 30-A, section 3821, subsection 3 to clarify that hotel and lodging house registers must be kept for 2 years and must be available for inspection by an agent of the authority that licenses the hotel or lodging house; and
- 2. Amends Title 34-A, section 1216, subsection 1, paragraph D to clarify that dissemination of certain information pertaining to a person receiving services from the Department of Corrections may be made to any criminal justice agency if necessary to carry out the "administration of criminal justice" as separately defined pursuant to the Criminal History Record Information Act and the Intelligence and Investigative Record Information Act, and to carry out the "administration of juvenile criminal justice" and the "administration of juvenile justice" as separately defined pursuant to the Maine Juvenile Code.
