IN A STATUTE PROVIDING FOR DE NOVO JUDICIAL REVIEW OR APPEAL OF A QUASI-JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCY ACTION, "DE NOVO" MEANS JUDICIAL REVIEW BASED ON AN ADMINISTRATIVE RECORD AND ANY ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE THAT WOULD BE AUTHORIZED BY § 10–222(F) AND (G) OF THE STATE GOVERNMENT ARTICLE.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 32.

General Provisions Article Review Committee consideration by the General Assembly, that the definition of "de novo" as provided under subsection (b) of this section does not coincide with the more commonly understood definition of "de novo". However, the committee notes that the reason for the placement of the definition of "de novo" in former Article 1 is stated in Thompson v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, 196 Md. App. 235 (2010), in which the Court of Special Appeals recognized that the Commission to Revise the Administrative Procedure Act in 1991–1992 addressed the issue in its substantive statutory revision (Chapter 59 of the Laws of 1993). Based on the Court of Appeals limitation on de novo review set forth in DNR v. Linchester Sand and Gravel Corp., 274 Md. 211 (1975), the Commission recommended that "except in the very limited circumstances of the Workers' Compensation Commission and the Health Claims Arbitration Office, de novo evidence should generally not be allowed to be introduced before a Court reviewing a decision of a State agency. This change would be accomplished by adding § 32 to Article 1 of the Annotated Code, as proposed in the attached bill". In Thompson, the court further noted that the Commission's solution was to add to the Rules of Interpretation Article a possible "Humpty-Dumpty definition" in which "de novo" judicial review of agency action meant review upon an administrative record with the limited additional evidence mechanisms specified in § 10–222(f) and (g) of the State Government Article.

1 2 3 4 5	IN A STATUTE THAT AUTHORIZES A GIFT TO OR FOR THE USE OF THE STATE OR ANY OF ITS OFFICERS OR UNITS, "GIFT" INCLUDES AN INTER VIVOS GIFT, INTER VIVOS ENDOWMENT, BEQUEST, DEVISE, LEGACY, OR TESTAMENTARY ENDOWMENT OF ANY INTEREST IN REAL OR PERSONAL PROPERTY.

29	(II) IS PUBLISHED BY A SMALL BUSINESS AS DEFINED IN 8

14-201 OF THE STATE FINANCE AND PROCUREMENT ARTICLE.

1 REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 28.

In the introductory language of subsection (a) of this section, the reference to a "judgment" is added for accuracy.

Also in the introductory language of subsection (a) of this section, the former references to "paper" and "newspaper devoted to the dissemination of general news" are deleted as unnecessary because those terms are not used in the Code.

In subsection (a)(5) of this section, the reference to "qualif[ying] for Periodicals rates for mailing through the United States Postal Service" is substituted for the former, obsolete reference to "[being] entitled to be entered as second-class matter in the United States mail". "Second-class mail" was renamed "Periodicals" on July 1, 1996.

In subsection (b)(1) of this section, the word "or" is substituted for the former word "and" to clarify that a newspaper does not have to be both items (1) and (2) to qualify as the defined term.

The General Provisions Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that the definition of "newspaper" is more substantive than definitional in nature. However, this definition was placed in Article 1 through the code revision process, in particular through Chapter 284 of 1984, which established the State Government Article. The Revisor's Note to Chapter 284, which transferred the definition of "newspaper" from former Art. 76, § 8 to Art. 1, § 28 states "[i]n the introductory part of this section, the clause 'that refers to publishing a ... legal notice' is added to reflect the title of Ch. 905, Acts of 1941, which added former Art. 76, § 8 to the Code for the limited purpose of 'defining the publications in which legal notices and legal advertising shall be inserted,' ...".

Defined terms: "Includes" § 1–110 "State" § 1–115

1–114. Person.

"PERSON" INCLUDES AN INDIVIDUAL, RECEIVER, TRUSTEE, GUARDIAN, PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE, FIDUCIARY, REPRESENTATIVE OF ANY KIND, CORPORATION, PARTNERSHIP, BUSINESS TRUST, STATUTORY TRUST, LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY, FIRM, ASSOCIATION, OR OTHER NONGOVERNMENTAL ENTITY.

$\frac{1}{2}$	REV	ISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 15.
3 4 5 6 7 8		The references to an "individual, receiver, trustee, guardian, personal representative, fiduciary, [or] representative of any kind" and a "firm, association, or other entity" are added for consistency with the definition of the term in many recently revised articles. See, e.g., CP § 1–101(l), CS § 1–101(l), EC § 1–101(d), HS § 1–101(h), IN § 1–101(dd), PS § 1–101(c), and PU § 1–101(u). No substantive change is intended.
9 10 11		The former phrase "[u]nless such a construction would be unreasonable" is deleted as a standard rule of statutory construction for defined terms. See General Revisor's Note to title.
12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20		The definition of "person" in this subsection does not include a governmental entity or unit. The Court of Appeals of Maryland has held consistently that the word "person" in a statute does not include the State, its agencies, or subdivisions unless an intention to include these entities is made manifest by the legislature. See, e.g., Unnamed Physicians v. Commission on Medical Discipline, 285 Md. 1, 12–14 (1979). This rule does not apply when there is no impairment of sovereign powers and the provision that uses the term enhances a proprietary interest of the governmental unit. See 89 Op. Att'y Gen. 53, 58 (2004).
21	Defin	ned term: "Includes" § 1–110

31 32 33 34	REV	ISOR'S NOTE: This section is standard language added to provide an express definition of the term "state". The term conforms to the same term defined in other recently revised articles of the Code. See, e.g., EC § 1–101(g) and LU § 1–101(q).

1	1–116. University of Maryland.

8	The former phrase "unless the context requires otherwise" is deleted as a standard rule of statutory construction for defined terms.

28 29	Former Art. 1, § 14(b), which provided that the circuit court for the county includes the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, is deleted as unnecessary in light of Article IV, § 20(a) of the Maryland Constitution, which states that "[t]here

1 2 3 4 5	shall be a Circuit Court for each County and for Baltimore City. The Circuit Courts shall have and exercise, in the respective counties, and Baltimore City, all the power, authority and jurisdiction, original and appellate, which the Circuit Courts of the counties exercised on the effective date of these amendments, and the greater or lesser jurisdiction hereafter prescribed by law".
6 7 8 9	The General Provisions Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that several of the definitions in this subtitle are substantive. The committee has decided not to transfer or alter the definitions in deference to the General Assembly and the legislative history related to the placement and drafting of these sections as definitions.

20 21 22	The phrase "a reference to" one gender is substituted for the former reference to "all words in this Code importing" one gender for brevity and clarity.
23	1–202. SINGULAR AND PLURAL.
24 25	THE SINGULAR INCLUDES THE PLURAL AND THE PLURAL INCLUDES THE SINGULAR.
26 27	REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 8.
28 29	The phrase "the plural includes the singular" is substituted for the former phrase "vice versa" for clarity.
30 31 32	The former phrase "except where such construction would be unreasonable" is deleted as a standard rule of statutory construction. See General Revisor's Note to title.

WHERE A PUBLIC GENERAL LAW AND A PUBLIC LOCAL LAW ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY ARE IN CONFLICT, THE PUBLIC LOCAL LAW SHALL PREVAIL.

4 REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 13.

The reference to a public local law "enacted by the General Assembly" is added for clarity.

The former reference to a public local law "of any county, city, town or district" is deleted as implicit in the reference to a "public local law".

The General Provisions Article Review Committee notes that the determination of whether a law is a public general law or public local law is not simply based on the entity that enacted the law. In Steimel v. Board of Election Supervisors of Prince George's County, 278 Md. 1 (1976), the Court of Appeals used the test applied in Cole v. Secretary of State, 249 Md. 425 (1968), to determine whether a law is a public local law. In Steimel, the court stated that "the test applied is whether the law, in subject matter and substance, was confined in its operation to prescribed territorial limits and was equally applicable to all persons within such limits. We thus distinguished the enactment there from public general law, which deals with the general public welfare, a subject which is of significant interest not just to any one county, but rather to more than one geographical subdivision, or even to the entire state". The court held that an Act of the General Assembly which permitted businesses in Prince George's County to be open on Sunday was a public local law.

1–207. INCONSISTENT AMENDMENTS TO SAME PROVISION.

(A) AMENDMENTS TO BE CONSTRUED TOGETHER.

EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SUBSECTION (B) OF THIS SECTION, IF TWO OR MORE AMENDMENTS TO THE SAME SECTION ARE ENACTED AT THE SAME OR DIFFERENT SESSIONS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, AND ONE OF THE AMENDMENTS MAKES NO REFERENCE TO AND TAKES NO ACCOUNT OF THE OTHER, THE AMENDMENTS SHALL BE CONSTRUED TOGETHER AND EACH SHALL BE GIVEN EFFECT, IF POSSIBLE, WITH DUE REGARD TO THE WORDING OF THEIR TITLES.

(B) WHEN AMENDMENTS ARE IRRECONCILABLE.

1	IF THE AMENDMENTS ARE IRRECONCILABLE AND IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO
2 3	CONSTRUE THEM TOGETHER, THE LATEST IN DATE OF FINAL ENACTMENT SHALL PREVAIL.
9	SHALL PREVAIL.
4 5	REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 17.
6 7	In subsection (a) of this section, the former reference to a section "or subsection of the Code" is deleted as implicit.
8 9	Also in subsection (a) of this section, the former reference to other "or others" is deleted as implicit.
10 11 12 13 14	The General Provisions Article Review Committee notes that "enactment" commonly refers to the final act that makes a measure law. In Elgin v. Capitol Greyhound Lines , 192 Md. 303 (1949), the Court of Appeals found that where two or more acts of the legislature are approved by the Governor on the same day, the latter act in numerical order of chapters is considered the last expression of legislative will.
16	1–208. CAPTIONS AND CATCHLINES.
17 18	THE CAPTION OR CATCHLINE OF A SECTION OR SUBSECTION THAT IS PRINTED IN BOLD TYPE, ITALICS, OR OTHERWISE:
19 20	(1) IS INTENDED AS A MERE CATCHWORD TO INDICATE THE CONTENTS OF THE SECTION OR SUBSECTION; AND
21 22	(2) (I) MAY NOT BE CONSIDERED AS A TITLE OF THE SECTION OR SUBSECTION; AND
23 24 25	(II) EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED, MAY NOT BE CONSIDERED AS A TITLE IF THE SECTION, SUBSECTION, CAPTION, OR CATCHLINE IS AMENDED OR REENACTED.
26 27	REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 18.
28 29	In this section, the references to a "catchline" are substituted for the former references to "headlines" to reflect modern terminology.
30 31 32	In the introductory language of this section, the former references to captions or catchlines "of the several sections of this Code" and "of the several subsections of this Code" are deleted as implicit.

In item (2)(i) of this section, the former reference to "any part thereof" is deleted as surplusage.

The General Provisions Article Review Committee notes that Maryland case law supports this section even when the language of the catchline contradicts the statute. In State v. Holton, 193 Md. App. 322, 365–66 (2010), aff'd 420 Md. 530 (2011), the Court of Special Appeals found that the caption to § 5–501 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article, "Action for defamation against local government official", does not limit to actions for defamation the accompanying statutory language which states "[a] civil or criminal action may not be brought against a city or town councilman ... for words spoken at a meeting ...". In so finding, the Court of Appeals stated "[i]n determining the meaning of a statute, we look to the words of the statute itself, not a caption. W. Corr. Inst. v. Geiger, 371 Md. 125, 141 (2002) Captions and headings are mere catchwords and can never be taken to limit or expand the plain meaning of statutory language".

The General Provisions Article Review Committee also notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that there are instances in the Code where section captions are made part of the law. Specifically, § 1–107 of the Commercial Law Article states "[s]ection captions are part of the Maryland Uniform Commercial Code". The General Assembly may wish to amend this section to clarify this exception.

1–209. REFERENCE TO LAW INCLUDES AMENDMENTS.

(A) APPLICATION OF SECTION.

THE RULE OF CONSTRUCTION ESTABLISHED BY THIS SECTION APPLIES TO AN AMENDMENT ADOPTED BEFORE, ON, OR AFTER JULY 1, 1973.

(B) IN GENERAL.

EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED, WHEN A PUBLIC GENERAL LAW OR PUBLIC LOCAL LAW REFERS TO A PORTION OF THE CODE OR TO ANY OTHER LAW, THE REFERENCE APPLIES TO ANY AMENDMENT TO THAT PORTION OF THE CODE OR OTHER LAW.

- REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 21.
- In subsection (a) of this section, the phrase "before, on, or after" is substituted for the former phrase "prior or subsequent to" for clarity.

In subsection (b) of this section, the former reference to a public general law or public local law of this State is deleted as surplusage.

Also in subsection (b) of this section, the former reference to any "subsequent" amendment is deleted as implicit.

(A) IN GENERAL.

EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED, THE PROVISIONS OF ALL STATUTES 8 ENACTED AFTER JULY 1, 1973, ARE SEVERABLE.

9 (B) When part of statute found to be unconstitutional or 10 void.

THE FINDING BY A COURT THAT PART OF A STATUTE IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL OR VOID DOES NOT AFFECT THE VALIDITY OF THE REMAINING PORTIONS OF THE STATUTE, UNLESS THE COURT FINDS THAT THE REMAINING VALID PROVISIONS ALONE ARE INCOMPLETE AND INCAPABLE OF BEING EXECUTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LEGISLATIVE INTENT.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 23.

In subsection (b) of this section, the reference to "part" of a statute is substituted for the former reference to "some provision of" a statute for brevity and clarity.

The General Provisions Article Review Committee notes that although courts sometimes ignore severability clauses and apply their own tests, the language in this section should be retained. Sutherland on Statutory Construction at § 44A:15 specifically discusses Maryland's statute: "The legislature can create a clear statement rule by enacting a general severability clause providing that all statutes should be treated as severable unless they contain a nonseverability clause specifically stating otherwise. Indeed, Maryland and Minnesota have provisions similar to this, although both statutes are conditioned in a manner that undercuts their force. Maryland's statute has the further virtue of explicitly stating that it applies only prospectively. Alas, general severability clauses have suffered from even greater neglect than severability clauses contained in specific statutes. For example, in Muller v. Curran [889 F2d 54 (4th Cir. 1989)], the court refused to believe that the legislature intended severance despite Maryland's clear statement rule and a specific severability clause in the statute. But if a general severability clause like Maryland's or Minnesota's were construed according to its plain meaning,

1 2 3 4 5 6		as advocated here, such a provision would operate as a legislatively established clear statement rule in favor of severability." Id. at § 44A:16. Only four other states, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri, and Oregon, have the "incomplete and incapable of being executed" language. The language of the Maryland statute appears tougher than the test set forth in case law – also something probably deliberately intended. Given the praise
7 8		heaped on the Maryland law by Sutherland, the provision should be left unchanged.

General Provisions Article Review Committee consideration by the General Assembly, that Maryland Rule 1-203 provides for the computation of time. Maryland Rule 1–203(a) states "[i]n computing any period of time prescribed by these rules, by rule or order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not included. If the period of time allowed is more than seven days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays are counted; but if the period of time allowed is seven days or less, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays are not counted. The last day of the period so computed is included unless: 1) it is a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday; or 2) the act to be done is the filing of a paper in court and the office of the clerk of that court on the last day of the period is not open, or is closed for a part of the day, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, holiday, or a day on which the office is not open during its regular hours". Maryland Rule 1–203(a) is inconsistent with subsection (b) of this section, as subsection (b) of this section includes Saturdays when computing the last day of the period of time, while Maryland Rule 1-203(a) specifically excludes Saturdays. Maryland Rule 1-202 defines a holiday as an employee holiday as set forth in § 9-201 of the State Personnel and Pensions Article. The list of holidays in § 9–201 of the State Personnel and Pensions Article is not consistent with the list of "legal holidays" provided in § 1–111 of this article. The committee note to Maryland Rule 1–203 states that "this section supersedes Code, [former] Article 1, § 36 to the extent of any inconsistency".

The General Provisions Article Review Committee also notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that while there is no provision in the Annotated Code for filing before an event, there is such a provision in the Maryland Rules of Procedure. Specifically, Maryland Rule 1–203(b) provides "[i]n determining the latest day for performance of an act which is required by these rules, by rule or order of court, or by any applicable statute, to be performed a prescribed number of days before a certain day, act, or event, all days prior thereto, including intervening Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, are counted in the number of days so prescribed. The latest day is included in the determination unless it is a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, in which event the latest day is the first preceding day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday". The General Assembly may wish to add a similar provision to this section.

Defined term: "Legal holiday" § 1–111

(5)	THE INDIVIDUAL ATTAINS THE AGE OF 19 YEARS.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 24(a).

Throughout this section, the references to an "individual" are substituted for the former references to a "person" because only an individual and not the other entities included in the defined term "person" may attain the age of majority.

In subsection (a)(1) of this section, the former phrase "hereby declared to be" is deleted as surplusage.

The General Provisions Article Review Committee notes. for consideration by the General Assembly, that the more appropriate placement of the provision in subsection (b) of this section related to child support is under § 5–203 of the Family Law Article. However, the committee is aware that the General Assembly intended that this provision be drafted to former Art. 1, § 24 as a result of a compromise reached by legislative committees when adopting Chapter 180 of 2002. For this reason, the committee has decided not to transfer this provision to the Family Law Article.

Defined term: "Adult" § 1–103

1-402. BOUNDARIES OF COUNTIES.

THE BOUNDARIES AND LIMITS OF EACH COUNTY SHALL REMAIN AS ESTABLISHED UNLESS ALTERED BY LAW.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 12.

The reference to the boundaries remaining as "established unless altered by law" is substituted for the former reference to remaining as "now established" for clarity. The section was originally enacted as part of the Maryland Code of 1860 and was reenacted in the Code of 1888. Since 1888, there have been at least seven changes in the boundaries of the counties or Baltimore City. The latest was in 1994 (Ch. 636), when the boundary line between Montgomery County and Prince George's County was altered to include all of the City of Takoma Park in Montgomery County. Article XIII, § 1 of the Maryland Constitution provides that "[t]he General Assembly may provide, by law, for organizing new Counties, locating and removing county seats, and changing county lines".

1	The former reference to the counties "of this State" is deleted as implicit.
2 3	The former reference to the "City of Baltimore" is deleted as included in the defined term "county".
4	Defined term: "County" § 1–107
5	1–403. CITATION OF REVISED ARTICLES.
6	(A) IN GENERAL.
7 8 9	EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SUBSECTION (B) OF THIS SECTION, UNNUMBERED REVISED ARTICLES OF THE ANNOTATED CODE OF MARYLAND MAY BE CITED AS: "§ OF THE ARTICLE".
10	(B) COURTS AND JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS ARTICLE.
11 12	A SECTION OF THE COURTS AND JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS ARTICLE MAY BE CITED AS: "§ OF THE COURTS ARTICLE".
13 14	REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 25.
15 16	In subsection (a) of this section, the phrase "[e]xcept as provided in subsection (b) of this section" is added for clarity.
17 18 19 20	Also in subsection (a) of this section, the reference to a section of "the Article" is substituted for the former references to each specific article name, except for the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article, which is shown in subsection (b) of this section, for brevity.
21	GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE TO TITLE
22 23 24 25 26 27	Former Art. 1, §§ 1, 2, and 4, which provided for the effect of the adoption of the Code, were originally enacted as part of the Maryland Code of 1860 and reenacted in the Code of 1888. The parties to any then existing contracts or pending litigation would be long dead. These sections are being transferred to the Session Laws to conform to modern bill drafting conventions, under which such provisions would typically be uncodified. See § 3 of Ch, Acts of 2014.
28 29 30 31 32 33	Throughout this subtitle, former language indicating that a definition applies unless such a construction would be "unreasonable" is deleted. The General Provisions Article Review Committee believes such a caveat is unnecessary because Maryland case law already factors the unreasonableness of a particular construction into a determination of legislative intent. See Board of Trustees v. Hughes, 340 Md. 1, 7 (1995) ("[W]e seek to avoid constructions that are illogical,

1 2 3 4 5 6	unreasonable, or inconsistent with common sense."); Wagner v. Board of County Commissioners, 263 Md. 560, 568 (1971) ("[W]e should prefer a construction which leads to a reasonable, rather than an unreasonable and absurd result."); and Doswell v. State, 53 Md. App. 647, 653 (1983) ("[T]he statute should be read in a commonsense manner to avoid an unreasonable or absurd result."). No substantive change is intended.
7	TITLE 2. OFFICIAL OATHS.
8	SUBTITLE 1. FORM OF OATH.
9 10	2–101. FORM OF OATH FOR POSITION NOT SUBJECT TO MARYLAND CONSTITUTION.
11 12 13 14 15 16	UNLESS A STATE OR LOCAL LAW REQUIRES A DIFFERENT FORM OF OATH, AN INDIVIDUAL APPOINTED TO A PUBLIC POSITION THAT REQUIRES THE INDIVIDUAL TO TAKE AN OATH, BUT NOT SUBJECT TO THE OATH REQUIRED BY ARTICLE I, § 9 OF THE MARYLAND CONSTITUTION, SHALL TAKE AN OATH TO PERFORM FAITHFULLY THE DUTIES OF THE OFFICE TO WHICH THE INDIVIDUAL IS APPOINTED.
17 18	REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former SG \S 16–106.
19 20 21	In this section and throughout this title, the references to a "State or local law" are substituted for the former references to a "law or ordinance" for clarity.
22 23 24 25	In this section and throughout this subtitle, the references to an "individual" are substituted for the former references to a "person" because only a human being and not the other entities included in the definition of "person" can take an oath.
26	In this section, the reference to a "public" position is added for accuracy.
27 28 29 30 31 32 33	The General Provisions Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that this section contains references to an "oath" but not an "affirmation". Section 2–103 of this subtitle indicates that an affirmation is sufficient if made by an individual conscientiously scrupulous of taking an oath. The General Assembly may wish to add references to an "affirmation" in this section for clarity and consistency.
34 35	The General Provisions Article Review Committee also notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that this section, like age-old

source law, recognizes that State or local law may require a different oath than that required by Article I, § 9 of the Maryland Constitution for those "not subject" to this constitutional oath requirement. And, in fact, this section retains in the law a statutory oath for holders of such positions. Another place in the Code where a statutory oath is imposed on one not holding a public office under the Constitution or laws is § 2–104(b) (deputy sheriffs) of the Courts Article. Since 1867, Article 37 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights has provided, in relevant part, that the legislature may not "prescribe any other oath of office other than the oath prescribed by this Constitution". The Court of Appeals has concluded that under this constitutional provision the General Assembly may not require a different oath for the holder of an office, whether or not the office is constitutional or statutory. Davidson v. Brice, 91 Md. 681, 690 (1900). See also AG Bill Review Letter on HB 1473, dated May 6, 2009. The source law for this section, like that for § 2–104(b) of the Courts Article, predates Article 37 and these provisions were enacted at a time when the legislature had the authority to require an oath different than that contained in Article I, § 9. What remains unclear is whether Article 37 jeopardizes the constitutionality of the source law for this section. In the absence of more definitive case law, the committee is hesitant to alter or delete language regarding statutory oaths; however, the General Assembly may wish to amend this section to be consistent with Article 37.

2–102. LANGUAGE PROHIBITED IN OATH.

NO PRECATORY WORDS, INCLUDING "SO HELP ME GOD", MAY BE ADDED TO AN OATH NOT REQUIRED BY THE MARYLAND CONSTITUTION.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 10.

The word "precatory" is substituted for the former phrase "any imprecatory words whatever" for accuracy. "Imprecatory" relates to calling down evil, while "precatory" pertains to praying.

The former reference to the "form of judicial and all other" oaths is deleted as surplusage.

The former reference to an oath "to be taken or administered in this State" is deleted as surplusage.

The former requirement to include the phrase "[i]n the presence of Almighty God I do solemnly promise or declare" is deleted as unconstitutional under Torcaso v. Watkins, 367 U.S. 495, 81 S.Ct. 1683 and White v. State, 244 Md. 188 (1966).

The General Provisions Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that this section contains references to an "oath" but not an "affirmation". Section 2–103 of this subtitle indicates that an affirmation is sufficient if made by an individual conscientiously scrupulous of taking an oath. The General Assembly may wish to add references to an "affirmation" in this section for clarity and consistency.

The General Provisions Article Review Committee also notes that additional requirements related to oaths are found in the Maryland Rules. Maryland Rule 1-303 provides that "[e]xcept as provided in Rule 16–819(d)(3), whenever an oral oath is required by rule or law, the person making oath shall solemnly swear or affirm under the penalties of perjury that the responses given and statements made will be the whole truth and nothing but the truth". Maryland Rule 1–304 provides that the statement of the affiant may be made before an officer authorized to administer an oath or affirmation, who shall certify in writing to having administered the oath or taken the affirmation, or may be made by signing the statement in one of the following forms: Generally. "I solemnly affirm under the penalties of perjury that the contents of the foregoing paper are true to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief." Personal Knowledge. "I solemnly affirm under the penalties of perjury and upon personal knowledge that the contents of the foregoing paper are true.".

2–103. SUFFICIENCY OF AFFIRMATION INSTEAD OF OATH.

25 IF AN OATH IS REQUIRED BY THE CODE, AN AFFIRMATION IS SUFFICIENT 26 IF MADE BY AN INDIVIDUAL CONSCIENTIOUSLY SCRUPULOUS OF TAKING AN 27 OATH.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 9.

The reference to an "individual" is substituted for the former reference to a "person" because only a human being and not the other entities included in the definition of "person" is capable of making an oath or affirmation.

SUBTITLE 2. ADMINISTRATION OF OATH.

2–201. METHOD FOR ADMINISTRATION OF OATH.

AN INDIVIDUAL WHO ADMINISTERS AN OATH SHALL REQUIRE THE INDIVIDUAL TAKING AN OATH TO HOLD UP A HAND IN RECOGNITION OF THE SOLEMNITY OF THE ACT UNLESS:

1	(1) HOLDING UP A HAND IS NOT PRACTICABLE; OR
2 3	(2) IT APPEARS THAT ANOTHER METHOD WOULD BE MORE BINDING ON THE CONSCIENCE OF THE INDIVIDUAL TAKING THE OATH.
4 5	REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 1, § 11.
6 7 8	In the introductory language of this section, the reference to "[a]n individual who administers an oath" is substituted for the former reference to "[t]he manner of administering oaths" for clarity.
9 10 11 12	Also in the introductory language of this section, the reference to holding up a hand "in recognition" of the solemnity of the act is substituted for the former reference to holding up a hand "in token of his recognition" of the solemnity of the act for brevity.
13 14	In item (2) of this section, the reference to the "individual taking the oath" is substituted for the former reference to the "swearer" for clarity.

No changes are made.

General Provisions Article Review Committee consideration by the General Assembly, that the individual administering the oath to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates in subsections (a) and (b) of this section has been elected but not yet sworn in. Rule 2 of the Rules of the Senate of Maryland provides that the President shall be elected by the Senate, which shall first elect a President Pro Tem, who shall preside over the Senate until the President is elected and assumes that office. The President Pro Tem is required to administer the oath of office to the President. Rule 2 of the Rules of the House of Delegates provides that the Speaker shall be elected by the House, which shall first elect a Speaker Pro Tem who shall administer the oath of office to the Speaker. The President, President Pro Tem, Speaker, and Speaker Pro Tem each hold office from the date of their election until the earlier of: (1) the beginning of the next regular session of the General Assembly; (2) the election of another person to hold the office; or (3) the occurrence of a vacancy in the office.

The General Provisions Article Review Committee also notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that the federal process for swearing in members of Congress is similar to the process in the Maryland General Assembly. Members of the House of Representatives usually take their oath during the first day of a new Congress. After the Speaker is elected, the member with the longest continuous service administers the oath to the Speaker. This tradition originated in the British House of Commons and has been the practice in the House of Representatives since at least 1849. The Speaker then administers the oath to the rest of the members as a group. As for the Senate, the Congressional Research Services' The First Day of a New Congress: A Guide to Proceedings on the Senate Floor, states that the Vice President presides when the Senate first convenes. The first order of business in a new Senate is the swearing-in of senators elected or re-elected in the most recent general election. The Vice President then swears in senators, in alphabetical order in groups of four, to take the oath and to also "subscribe to the oath" in the official oath book. As provided by the U.S. Constitution, the President pro tempore is chosen by the Senate to preside during the absence of the Vice President. When there is a change in party control of the Senate, or when a vacancy in the office of President pro tempore occurs, a new President pro tempore is elected by resolution and then sworn in by the Vice President. Unlike the process for administering oaths in the Maryland General Assembly, which is set forth in the Rules for each chamber, the process for administering oaths in Congress is based primarily on tradition.

1 2	2–205. MUNICIPAL OFFICERS OTHER THAN MAYORS OR CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS.
3 4 5 6	EXCEPT FOR A MAYOR OR CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER OF A MUNICIPAL CORPORATION, ALL OFFICERS OF A MUNICIPAL CORPORATION SHALL TAKE AN OATH BEFORE THE MAYOR OR CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER OF THE MUNICIPAL CORPORATION IF AN OATH IS REQUIRED BY STATE OR LOCAL LAW.

25	REVISOR'S NOTE: This section formerly was SG § 10–501.
26	In the introductory language of subsection (a)(2) of this section, the

15	The	General Provisions Article Review Committee notes, for
16	consi	deration by the General Assembly, that subsection (e) of this section,
17	whic	h temporarily restricts the ability to copy a judgment, appears to be
18	incon	sistent with the Maryland Rules of Procedure regarding access to
19	court	records. Specifically, Maryland Rule 16–1002(a) provides for a
20	presi	amption of openness in stating that "[c]ourt records maintained by a
21		or by another judicial agency are presumed to be open to the public
22		nspection. Except as otherwise provided by or pursuant to these
23		s, the custodian of a court record shall permit a person, upon
24	-	onal appearance in the office of the custodian during normal business
25		s, to inspect such a record". Maryland Rule 16–1003 generally allows
26	- -	ng of court records and Maryland Rule 16-1005 makes restrictive
27	•	sions of the Maryland Public Information Act inapplicable to case
28		ds unless expressly incorporated into the Rules. Under Article IV, §
29	` '	of the Maryland Constitution, a rule of the Court of Appeals can
30	-	rsede a State statute, subject to the General Assembly's authority to
31		ide the rule change. A decision to take such an action is a
32		cantive one, within the power of the General Assembly. Just like a
33		reenactment of this source law along with an unrelated substantive
34	chan	ge, Chapter 436, Acts of 2011, this revision of the source law for

$\frac{1}{2}$	subsection (e) of this section is not intended to supersede any conflicting rule of the Court of Appeals.

Provisions Article Review Committee consideration by the General Assembly, that in 1992 U.S. District Court Judge Nickerson granted an injunction when subsection (a)(3) of this section was challenged as unconstitutional, finding that the provision First Amendment rights. Ficker, et al v. 1:92-cv-01466-WMN (N.D. Md. Sept. 16, 1993). Since the Ficker decision, the legal landscape may have changed. In Los Angeles Police Department v. United Reporting Publishing Corp., 528 U.S. 32 (1999), the United States Supreme Court rejected a facial First Amendment challenge to a California law which denied access to the arrestee's addresses to those intending to use this information to sell a product or service. The court noted that "[t]his is not a case in which the government is prohibiting a speaker from conveying information that the speaker already possesses". Id. at 40. Rather, "what we have before us is nothing more than a government denial of access to information in its possession. California could decide not to give out arrestee information at all without violating the First Amendment." Id.

Whether the 1999 Supreme Court decision could now be used to defend a prohibition such as that found in subsection (a)(3) of this section is an open question. But in any event, on the basis of this new authority, the committee does not recommend deletion of this presently inoperative provision. Nevertheless, the Maryland law is presently enjoined and revision of this provision is not intended to reinstate subsection (a)(3) as an operative provision of law. The decision whether to revise this provision is substantive and within the power of the General Assembly.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section formerly was SG § 15–849.

In subsection (a)(2)(i)2 of this section, the phrase "the association is not required" to poll its members is substituted for the former phrase "this paragraph may not be construed to require the association" to poll its members for brevity.

In the introductory language of subsection (g) of this section, the reference to the "administrative assistant" is substituted for the former reference to the "administrative clerk" to conform to the terminology used in subsection (h) of this section and to the practices of the zoning board.

In subsection (h)(2) of this section, the former reference to the summary report being a "matter of" public record is deleted as surplusage.

The only other changes are in style.

The General Provisions Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that although this revision retains the provision in subsection (g) of this section that authorizes the "Ethics Commission" to provide certain direction to the administrative assistant to the Howard County zoning board or the administrator of the Howard County Council when considering an application, the State Ethics Commission has indicated that it is the policy of the Commission not to intervene in local commission matters. The Commission believes that the term "Ethics Commission" refers to the Howard County Ethics Commission, rather than the State Ethics Commission. The General Assembly may wish to clarify the Ethics Commission to which this subsection refers.

The General Provisions Article Review Committee also notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that subsection (h) of this section requires the administrative assistant to the zoning board and the administrator of the County Council to prepare a certain summary report compiling affidavits and disclosures "promptly on receipt". However, the section does not indicate what is to be received. The General Assembly 1 2 may wish to amend subsection (h) for clarity. 3 Defined terms: "Applicant" § 5–852 "Application" § 5–852 4 "Candidate" § 5–852 5 "Contribution" § 5–852 6 7 "Contributor" § 5–852 8 "Elected official" § 5–852 9 "Engaging in business" § 5–852 "Family member" § 5–852 10 "Party of record" § 5–852 11 "Political action committee" § 5–852 12 "Political committee" § 5–852 13 "Slate" § 5–852 14 "Treasurer" § 5–852 15 16 5–854. 7	GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE TO SUBTITLE

8 9	The General Provisions Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that for Parts V and VIII of this subtitle, "slate" is
10 11 12 13	defined as "a group, combination, or organization of candidates". "Candidate" is defined for the parts to mean a candidate for Prince George's County Council "who becomes a member" and a candidate for Howard County Executive or Howard County Council "who becomes an elected official", respectively. See §§
14 15 16	5–833(f) and (p) and 5–852(e) and (n) of this subtitle. Similarly, for Part VI of this subtitle, "slate" is defined, in part, as "two or more candidates". "Candidate" is defined for the part to mean an individual "who wins an election" for
17 18 19	Montgomery County Executive or Montgomery County Council. See § 5–842(e) and (l) of this subtitle. These definitions would therefore exclude a slate (as defined in the Election Law Article) that had only one "candidate", as
20 21	defined for these parts, but included one or more candidates for other offices (such as the General Assembly).

16	GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE TO ARTICLE
17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26	The Department of Legislative Services is charged with revising the law in a clear, concise, and organized manner, without changing the effect of the law. One precept of revision has been that, once something is said, it should be said in the same way every time. To that end, the General Provisions Article Review Committee conformed the language and organization of this article to that of previously enacted revised articles to the extent possible. It is the manifest intent both of the General Assembly and the General Provisions Article Review Committee that this bulk revision of certain substantive laws of the State render no substantive change. The guiding principle of the preparation of this article is that stated in Welch v. Humphrey , 200 Md. 410, 417 (1952):
27 28 29 30 31	[T]he principal function of a Code is to reorganize the statutes and state them in simpler form. Consequently any changes made in them by a Code are presumed to be for the purpose of clarity rather than change of meaning. Therefore even a change in the phraseology of a statute by a codification thereof will not ordinarily modify the law, unless the change is so radical and material that the intention of the Legislature to modify the law appears unmistakably from the language of the Code. (citations omitted)

Accordingly, except to the extent that changes, which are noted in Revisor's Notes, clarify the former law, the enactment of this article in no way is intended to make any change to the substantive law of Maryland. This intent is further stated in uncodified language included in the enactment of this article. See § 4 of Ch. ____, Acts of 2014.

Throughout this article, as in other revised articles, the word "regulations" generally is substituted for former references to "rules and regulations" to distinguish, to the extent possible, between regulations of executive units and rules of judicial or legislative units and to establish consistency in the use of the words. This substitution conforms to the practice of the Division of State Documents.

Also throughout this article, as in other revised articles, the term "unit" is substituted for former references to State entities such as "agency", "board", "commission", and "department". In revised articles of the Code, the term "unit" is used as the general term for an organization in the State government because it is broad enough to include all such entities.

Some apparently obsolete provisions allocated to the General Provisions Article are transferred to Session Laws for historical purposes or to avoid any inadvertent substantive effect their repeal might have.

In some instances, the staff of the Department of Legislative Services may create "Special Revisor's Notes" to reflect the substantive effect of legislation enacted during the 2014 Session on some provisions of this article.

SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Section(s) 1, 2, and 4 of Article 1 – Rules of Interpretation of the Annotated Code of Maryland be repealed and reenacted, without amendments, and transferred to the Sessions Laws, to read as follows:

Effect of Adoption of Code

29 1.

The adoption of this Code shall not affect or impair any right, vested or acquired and existing at the time of its adoption, nor shall it impair, discharge or release any existing contract, obligation, duty or liability of any kind whatsoever. All pending suits, actions and prosecutions for crimes or misdemeanors, including all civil and criminal proceedings whatsoever, shall be prosecuted and proceeded with to final determination, and judgment entered therein as if this Code had not been adopted.

2.

If any crime, misdemeanor or other violation of law hath been committed and no prosecution or other proceeding hath been commenced against the offender before the adoption of this Code, then such offender may be proceeded against by indictment or otherwise, and punished in the same manner as if this Code had not been adopted.

5 3.

No rights, property or privileges held under a charter or grant from this State shall be in any manner impaired or affected by the adoption of this Code.

REVISOR'S NOTE: These sections formerly were Art. 1, §§ 1, 2, and 4.

Former Art. 1, §§ 1, 2, and 4, which provided for the effect of the adoption of the Code, were originally enacted as part of the Maryland Code of 1860 and reenacted in the Code of 1888. The parties to any then existing contracts or pending litigation would be long dead. They are being transferred to the Session Laws to conform to modern bill drafting conventions, under which such provisions would typically be uncodified.

SECTION 4. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That it is the intention of the General Assembly that, except as expressly provided in this Act, this Act shall be construed as a nonsubstantive revision, and may not otherwise be construed to render any substantive change in the law of the State.

SECTION 5. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the catchlines, captions, Revisor's Notes, Special Revisor's Notes, and General Revisor's Notes contained in this Act are not law and may not be considered to have been enacted as part of this Act.

SECTION 6. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That nothing in this Act affects the term of office of an appointed or elected member of any commission, board, office, department, agency, or other unit. An individual who is a member of a unit on the effective date of this Act shall remain a member for the balance of the term to which appointed or elected, unless the member sooner dies, resigns, or is removed under provisions of law.

SECTION 7. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Act, any transaction or employment status affected by or flowing from any change of nomenclature or any statute amended, repealed, or transferred by this Act remains valid after the effective date of this Act and may be terminated, completed, consummated, or enforced as required or allowed by any statute amended, repealed, or transferred by this Act as though the repeal, amendment, or transfer had not occurred. If a change in nomenclature involves a change in name or designation of any State unit, the successor unit shall be considered in all respects as having the powers and obligations granted the former unit.

SECTION 8. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the continuity of every commission, board, office, department, agency, or other unit is retained. The personnel records, files, furniture, fixtures, and other properties and all appropriations, credits, assets, liabilities, and obligations of each retained unit are continued as the personnel, records, files, furniture, fixtures, properties, appropriations, credits, assets, liabilities, and obligations of the unit under the laws enacted by this Act.

SECTION 9. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Act, any person licensed, registered, certified, or issued a permit or certificate by any commission, office, department, agency, or other unit established or continued by any statute amended, repealed, or transferred by this Act is considered for all purposes to be licensed, registered, certified, or issued a permit or certificate by the appropriate unit continued under this Act or the duration of the term for which the license, registration, certification, or permit was issued, and may renew that authorization in accordance with the appropriate renewal provisions of this Act.

SECTION 10. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act does not rescind, supersede, change, or modify any rule adopted by the Court of Appeals that is or was in effect on the effective date of this Act concerning the practice and procedure in and the administration of the appellate courts and the other courts of the State.

SECTION 11. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the publisher of the Annotated Code of Maryland, in consultation with and subject to the approval of the Department of Legislative Services, shall correct, with no further action required by the General Assembly, cross—references and terminology rendered incorrect by this Act or by any other Act of the General Assembly of 2014 that affects provisions enacted by this Act. The publisher shall adequately describe such correction in an editor's note following the section affected.

SECTION 12. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect October 1, 2014.
