13 SECTION 11.5.(c) Purpose. – The Committee shall create a list of all permits issued
14 by the Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) that regulate public or private development.
15 From that list, the Committee shall do all the following:

- 16 (1) Determine how those development permits interact with international, federal,
17 and State law.
- 18 (2) Determine the authority under which each permit is issued or required.
- 19 (3) Determine if the administration of any permits can be better streamlined to 20 provide relief to the regulated community.
- 21 (4) Determine if any redundancy exists between permits and if any permits could 22 be consolidated.
- 23 (5) Determine the cost-for-service relationship between the permit fee and the 24 implementation costs of the authority assigned to the permit.
- 25 (6) Determine a reasonable timetable for permit approvals.
- 26 (7) Determine if supplemental fees are necessary to cover the costs related to 27 incomplete or inaccurate permit applications.
- 28 (8) Address any other issue that the Committee deems appropriate.

29 SECTION 11.5.(d) Schedule; Remote. – The Committee chair shall call an 30 introductory meeting the first full month after the General Assembly adjourns the 2021 Regular 31 Session and shall call additional meetings monthly until the convening of the 2022 Regular
