1 SECTION 2. AMENDATORY 22 O.S. 2011, Section 996.3, is
2 amended to read as follows:

3 Section 996.3. A. Upon a verdict of guilty or a plea of guilty
4 or nolo contendere of an offender, the court shall delay sentencing
5 for a period not less than one hundred eighty (180) days nor more 6 than one (1) year after the plea of guilty or finding of guilt is 7 entered and order the offender to the Delayed Sentencing Program for 8 Young Adults under the custody of the Department of Corrections.
9 For purposes of the Delayed Sentencing Program for Young Adults, the 10 term "custody" shall include probation or confinement during the 11 term of the Program. The court may initially commit the offender 12 for either probation or confinement pending the completion of the 13 Delayed Sentencing Program.

14 After the completion of the Program the court shall:

15 1. Defer judgment pursuant to the provisions of Section 991c of 16 this title;

17 2. Sentence the offender to any sentence provided by law in the 18 custody of the Department of Corrections;

19 3. Suspend the execution of sentence pursuant to Section 991a
20 of this title. In addition to other conditions of probation allowed 21 by statute, the court may include special conditions of probation as 22 set forth in the plan provided to the court if sentencing is 23 deferred or if all or part of the sentence is suspended;

24 4. Sentence the offender to community sentencing; or

1 5. Dismiss the criminal charges and proceedings.

2 B. Within ninety (90) days after the offender is committed to 3 the Delayed Sentencing Program for Young Adults, the Department of 4 Corrections shall prepare and file with the court clerk a 5 specialized offender accountability plan for the offender which 6 shall comply with and be in lieu of the presentence investigation
7 provided for in Section 982 of this title. The plan shall include 8 information, evaluations, and data directed by the sentencing court, 9 and may include, but not be limited to, the investigation report of 10 probation officers, an assessment of security risks and offender 11 needs and a recommended specific course of action, including, where 12 applicable, psychological counseling, psychiatric treatment, medical 13 treatment, education or vocational training, work, restitution, and 14 such other programs, which will offer the best opportunity for 15 rehabilitation of the offender. If the plan recommends confinement, 16 the plan shall state specifically the type of confinement that the 17 Department of Corrections proposes to utilize and the amount of time 18 the offender will spend in that confinement, including but not 19 limited to boot camp, substance abuse treatment, and vocational or 20 educational placement.

21 Upon filing the plan, copies shall be provided by the Department 22 of Corrections to the district attorney, the offender, the 23 offender's attorney, and the court. If the district attorney, the 24 offender or the offender's attorney objects to the plan, the

1 objecting party may file a written objection with the court within 2 ten (10) days of the receipt of the plan. Upon the filing of any 3 objection, the court shall conduct a hearing within ten (10) days of 4 the filing of the objection and decide a plan of action for the 5 offender under the Delayed Sentencing Program for Young Adults or 6 sentence the offender as otherwise provided by law.

7 C. An order by the court placing an offender in the Delayed
8 Sentencing Program for Young Adults shall be accepted by the 9 Department of Corrections as a commitment to the custody of the 10 Department pursuant to the provisions of Section 521 of Title 57 of 11 the Oklahoma Statutes, for the sole purpose of committing an 12 offender for assessment and evaluation and complying with the 13 accountability plan.

14 D. If no objection has been made to the plan, the offender
15 shall remain in the custody of the Department either under probation 16 or confinement to comply with the terms and conditions of the plan.
17 The offender may be housed either in a minimum or medium security 18 facility, halfway house, community corrections facility, or any 19 combination as needed to comply with the plan and meet offender
20 criminogenic needs. Upon completion of the program, the Department 21 shall notify the Sheriff of the county from where the order by the 22 court placing an offender in the Delayed Sentencing Program for 23 Young Adults was filed and the Sheriff shall take custody of the 24 offender.

1 E. Any offender previously admitted to the Delayed Sentencing
2 Program for Young Adults shall be ineligible for the Delayed
3 Sentencing Program for Young Adults for subsequent offenses.

4 SECTION 3. It being immediately necessary for the preservation
5 of the public peace, health or safety, an emergency is hereby 6 declared to exist, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and 7 be in full force from and after its passage and approval.
