7 RCW to read as follows:

8 (1) Moneys used for administrative expenses to assist employers
9 with developing a stay-at-work program and other related services 10 that respond to employer needs or employee needs, or both, in the 13 is not required for expenditures. Administrative expenses include, 14 but are not limited to, the salaries and expenses of staff required

15 to implement the services and travel, goods, and services necessary
16 to conduct these activities. The department must use stay-at-work 17 program premiums to pay for these services. The department must seek 18 the advice of the workers' compensation advisory committee prior to 19 accessing these funds.

20 (2) The director must appoint a stay-at-work advisory committee
21 composed of six members: Three representing large and small employers

1 and three representing labor. At least one member of the committee
2 must be a small business owner as defined by RCW 34.05.110(9)(a) or 3 must represent a group primarily made up of small businesses.
4 Appointed members representing employers must have experience working 5 directly with the stay-at-work program. Statewide business and labor 6 organizations, representing large and small employers, must provide 7 the director with recommendations for people to serve on the 8 committee. The department must provide staff support for this 9 committee.

10 (3) The members must serve three-year terms. Terms of the members 11 representing employers and labor must be staggered such that the 12 director must designate one member from each group initially 13 appointed whose term must expire after one year and one member from 14 each group whose term must expire after two years. The remainder of 15 the initial group must be appointed for three-year terms. Thereafter, 16 members must be appointed for three-year terms.

17 (4) The members must serve without compensation, but must be 18 entitled to travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and

23 for administrative expenses as defined under subsection (1) of this 24 section, and make recommendations to the workers' compensation
25 advisory committee for their consideration.

26 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 51.44

34 implement the one-time projects and travel, goods, and services
35 necessary to conduct these activities. The department must use self-36 insured employer administrative assessments to cover the costs of

1 these services. The department must seek support from self-insured
2 employers prior to accessing these funds.
