

2013 SENATE BILL 429

December 10, 2013 - Introduced by LAW REVISION COMMITTEE. Referred to Committee on Transportation, Public Safety, and Veterans and Military Affairs.

AUTHORS SUBJECT TO CHANGE

1 AN ACT to renumber 968.375 (2), 968.375 (3), 968.375 (6), 968.375 (7), 968.375
2 (9), 968.375 (10), 968.375 (11), 968.375 (12), 968.375 (13) and 968.375 (14); to
3 renumber and amend 968.375 (4), 968.375 (5) and 968.375 (15); and to
4 amend 175.60 (14) (a), 939.74 (2) (c) and 948.02 (1) (e) of the statutes; relating
5 to: fixing an incorrect cross-reference under the statute of limitations for 6 repeated sexual assault of the same child; numbers of subsections; sexual 7 assault of a child; suspension of license to carry a concealed weapon if the 8 person is prohibited from possessing a dangerous weapon as a condition of 9 release when charged with a felony or misdemeanor (suggested as remedial
10 legislation by the Department of Justice).

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill corrects an incorrect cross-reference so that the statutes of limitations are consistent for all offenses of repeated first-degree sexual assault of a child and so that prosecution for repeated second-degree sexual assault of a child must commence before the victim reaches 45 years of age, which is consistent with the statute of limitation for second-degree sexual assault of a child. The incorrect cross-reference under current law results in two inconsistent provisions for certain offenses of repeated first-degree sexual assault of a child; one provides that prosecution may commence at any time and the other provides that prosecution must generally commence before the victim reaches age 45. In addition, the incorrect cross-reference results in a time limitation for commencing prosecution of six years after the commission of repeated second-degree sexual assault of a child, which is inconsistent with the time limitation for second-degree sexual assault of a child, under which prosecution must commence before the victim reaches age 45.

Under current law, under first-degree sexual assault of a child, whoever has sexual contact with a person who is under 13 years of age is guilty of a Class B felony. "Sexual contact" is defined in current law so that it includes "sexual intercourse." For clarity, this bill specifies that whoever has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person who is under 13 years of age is guilty of a Class B felony.

Under current law, if, before a trial, a court releases a person who is charged with a felony or a misdemeanor without bail or upon the execution of an unsecured appearance bond, the court may prohibit the person from possessing any dangerous weapon as a condition of the release. If the person who is subject to this prohibition has a license to carry a concealed weapon, the court must revoke the license and the court must suspend the license, subject to restoration if the prohibition is removed. This bill clarifies that the license must be suspended, not revoked, if the court imposes such a condition.

This bill also renumbers subsections to eliminate gaps in numbering.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

LAW REVISION COMMITTEE PREFATORY NOTE: This bill is a remedial legislation proposal, requested by the Department of Justice and introduced by the Law Revision Committee under s. 13.83 (1) (c) 4. and 5., stats. After careful consideration of the various provisions of the bill, the Law Revision Committee has determined that this bill makes minor substantive changes in the statutes, and that these changes are desirable as a matter of public policy.

- 1 SECTION 1. 175.60 (14) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:
- 2 175.60 (14) (a) The department shall revoke a license issued under this section
- 3 if the department determines that sub. (3) (b), (c), ~~(d)~~, (e), (f), or (g) applies to the
- 4 licensee.

NOTE: Deletes the requirement that the Department of Justice revoke a license to carry a concealed weapon if the license holder is ordered not to possess a dangerous weapon as a condition of release on a pending criminal charge. This provision is in conflict with current law under which such a license must be suspended under these conditions and the department must restore the license upon notice that the person is no longer prohibited from possessing a dangerous weapon.

1 SECTION 2. 939.74 (2) (c) of the statutes is amended to read:

2 939.74 (2) (c) A prosecution for violation of s. 948.02 (2), 948.025 (1) ~~(b)~~ (e),
3 948.03 (2) (a), 948.05, 948.051, 948.06, 948.07 (1), (2), (3), or (4), 948.075, 948.08,
4 948.085, or 948.095 shall be commenced before the victim reaches the age of 45 years
5 or be barred, except as provided in sub. (2d).

NOTE: Removes the reference to an offense of engaging in repeated acts of sexual assault of the same child from the statute of limitations under which a prosecution must be commenced before the victim reaches age 45 years. This offense is also referenced in the statute of limitations for offenses for which a prosecution may be commenced at any time. This SECTION replaces the cross-reference with a cross-reference to another offense of engaging in repeated acts of sexual assault of the same child which currently is not specifically referenced and, therefore, is treated as felonies are in general. For felonies that are not subject to another statute of limitations, prosecution must be commenced within six years of the commission of the offense.

6 SECTION 3. 948.02 (1) (e) of the statutes is amended to read:

7 948.02 (1) (e) Whoever has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person
8 who has not attained the age of 13 years is guilty of a Class B felony.

NOTE: Adds having sexual intercourse to the offense prohibiting having sexual contact with a person who has not attained the age of 13 years. Among other offenses relating to sexual assault of a child, current law prohibits having sexual intercourse with a person who has not attained the age of 12 years and prohibits having sexual contact with a person who has not attained the age of 13 years.

9 SECTION 4. 968.375 (2) of the statutes is renumbered 968.375 (1).

10 SECTION 5. 968.375 (3) of the statutes is renumbered 968.375 (2).

11 SECTION 6. 968.375 (4) of the statutes is renumbered 968.375 (3), and 968.375
12 (3) (b), as renumbered, is amended to read:

13 968.375 (3) (b) A record or information described under sub. ~~(3)~~ (2) (a).

14 SECTION 7. 968.375 (5) of the statutes is renumbered 968.375 (4) and amended

16 of communications of a customer or subscriber described under sub. ~~(4)~~ (3) without 17 a subpoena or warrant if any of the following applies:
